Outreach programme with the trade / taxpayers on GST

The Goods and Services Tax (GST), scheduled to be rolled out from July, 2017 nationally would be a very significant step in the field of indirect tax reforms in India. Aimed at enhancing the economic integration of India, the tax system seeks to put in place a simpler, technology driven tax regime that facilitates ease of compliance from businesses while augmenting tax revenue and ease of administration. The Central Excise, Customs & Service Tax Department has been tasked with the seamless implementation and administration of the new tax regime.

As part of this mandate and its role as facilitators of trade and industry, the Department has decided to conduct an outreach programs nationally to raise awareness about GST among various stakeholders i.e., Trade and Industry and their associations, tax practitioners, officers of the department and public at large.

The Central Excise & Service Tax Kutch Commissionerate has scheduled an outreach programs in partnership with trade and industry on February 28, 2017 to be held at "Chamber Bhavan", Gandhidham Chamber of Commerce & Industry, Plot No 71, Sector - 8, Kutch, Gandhidham, Gujarat-370201 on 16:00 hours onwards.

This session will have officers from Department who will focus on issues specific to trade and industry and provide a platform to raise queries and concerns regarding GST laws. A presentation in Gujarati Language is also planned. We welcome questions from all stakeholders and the general public and these may be emailed in advance to: commr-cexkutch@nic.in.
